

From: Richards
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/17/02 11:58am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I do not believe that allowing Microsoft to give its products to schools is in the best interest of the public. The school system is the only area where Microsoft does not enjoy a monopoly. I believe that a "cash" penalty is required, which would allow the school system to spend the money as they wish.